Consequences of cancelling du mobile plan

If you cancel your du mobile plan, you must immediately pay all remaining handset instalments under the relevant Handset Instalment Plan.

By signing below, I agree to the terms and conditions that apply to the Device Instalment Plan as set out below:

Signature: _____ Date: _____
DD MM YYYY

Terms and Conditions:

1. Eligibility: to be eligible for a Handset Instalment Plan, you must sign up for, or have an existing, du post-paid mobile service. The Handset Instalment Plan is not available on a standalone basis.
2. Features: the Handset Instalment Plan allows the Customer to pay for handset(s) in monthly instalments over the period specified above as the Instalment Term.
3. Early termination: if the Customer terminates its du post-paid mobile service before the end of the Instalment Term, the Customer must pay all the remaining outstanding monthly instalments and will no longer be entitled to the Handset Instalment Plan.
4. If Customer terminates the device plan before the end of the instalment term, the customer must pay the remaining outstanding instalment amount.
5. Monthly instalments: the monthly instalments will appear on the Customer's monthly du invoice and will be payable by the due date of the invoice.
6. Manufacturer warranty: du is not the manufacturer of the handset and is not liable if the handset does not work or is faulty. Standard manufacturer warranties apply. The Customer should contact the handset warranty supplier if there is any issue with the handset.
7. All charges are exclusive of VAT.
8. Standard du terms & conditions apply, for details, please visit du.ae/terms-and-conditions.
